CREATIVE WRITING

A limerick is a type of a silly poem with five lines. They are often funny or nonsensical. Limericks were made famous by Edward Lear, a famous author who wrote the "Book of Nonsense" in the 1800s. This was an entire book of silly limericks.

How to write a limerick poem?

- The first, second and fifth lines rhyme with each other and have the same number of syllables (typically 8 or 9).
- The third and fourth lines rhyme with each other and have the same number of syllables (typically 5 or 6)
- Limericks often start with the line "There once was a..." or "There was a..."

Example of an 8,8,5,5,8 syllable limerick:

STAR

There once was a wonderful star
Who thought she would go very far
Until she fell down
And looked like a clown
She knew she would never go far.
