She asked, "What is the matter?"

Madam Nancy looked at Sarah and listened carefully to her words. She held her hand. After Sarah talked to Madam Nancy, she felt better.

PICTO GRAMMAR

Preposition: A preposition comes before a noun or pronoun in a sentence and shows its relationship to another word or part of the sentence.

Prepositions can be classified into three groups.

Language Check

Don't Say	Say	Note
The plane flew above the building.	The plane flew over the building.	Use 'above' when there is no movement. Use 'over' when there is movement.
We shall meet them in the club this evening.	We shall meet them at the club this evening	Use 'in' for large places. e.g. countries, cities etc. Use 'at' for small places. e.g. park, school etc.
I walk by foot.	I walk on foot.	'On' is used for actions involving body parts, 'By' is usually used to mention the means of transport.

7th_English_Term_1_Unit_3.indd 147 25-02-2019 18:00:30